

Friday Organ Concerts at Noon sponsored by the Parish Church of St. Helena offer nourishment for the soul.

On four Fridays this fall, world class musicians from across the country will offer recitals on the magnificent pipe organ in historic St. Helena's Church at 505 Church Street in downtown Beaufort. These free concerts will feature sacred and secular music. The guest virtuosos are Scott Lamlein, François Olivier, Charles Tompkins, and Brian Jones. Each of these performers is well-known, not only in university and church circles both here and abroad, but for work in recordings, film and TV. The series kicks off on October 2 with Scott Lamlein. Come spend an exhilarating hour with these incredible musicians. Not your boring ol' lunch for sure. For more information, contact Pat Gould, Director of Music for the Parish Church of St. Helena at 522-1712.
