

The Beaufort Symphony Orchestra and Maestro Frederick Devyatkin invite everyone in the greater Beaufort area to attend the opening concerts of our Twenty-fourth Season entitled “Two Fifths of Beethoven.”

World-renowned piano soloist, Daniel Adni will headline an All-Beethoven program on Thursday, October 13th, 8:00 P.M. and Sunday Matinee, October 18 at 3:00 P.M.

Mr. Adni has become one of Europe's most sought after concert artists. He will be performing the “Emperor Concerto, No. 5 with the BSO. Mr. Adni was born in Israel and made his keyboard debut at age 12. While studying at the Paris Conservatory he won their Premier Prix three times. In 1976 he was given top honors at the Young Concert Artist International Auditions, joining a list of truly exceptional musicians, including Emmanuel Ax and Murray Perahia. He has received rave reviews under the baton of Sir Georg Solti, Sergiu Commissiona, Lorin Maazel and Zubin Mehta.

He is appearing with the Beaufort Symphony as a result of the generous support of local music patron, Martha D. Hoke, who met him at the Romanian Arts and Music Festival in Britain two years ago.

The second “Fifth” of Beethoven chosen by Maestro Devyatkin for our opening program is the towering Symphony No. 5, which begins with its famous notes ‘da-da-da-da’. Now our audience has an opportunity to hear every single stirring note!

The Beaufort Orchestra encourages young people through high school to attend our concerts for $5.

In addition to the adult orchestra, the BSO is also the parent organization of the Beaufort Youth Orchestra, a dynamic group of young players, also directed by Fred Devyatkin. This group welcomes young people from upper elementary through high school by audition. (for more information about the youth group, please call (912) 232-7250 or (843) 524-1216)

As we begin our twenty-fourth year, The Beaufort Symphony invites everyone to come experience the excitement as we continue to 'Keep The Music Live'! For ticketing, please note the information below or visit the orchestra's website at
