

The Hilton Head Choral Society will present the King Singers, one of the world's most sought-after vocal ensembles, at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 7, at Holy Family Catholic Church, 24 Pope Ave. Founded in 1968 by six choral scholars from King's College in Cambridge, England, this remarkable group gained international notoriety, performing in concert halls and cathedrals in Europe, Russia, Japan, Korea, South Africa and the United States.

The Choral Society's elite Chamber Singers will follow with their Midwinter Musicale, a concert of season-inspired songs and romantic melodies, at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Feb. 22, at St. Andrew By-The-Sea United Methodist Church, 20 Pope Ave. One of the highlights of the evening performance will be a stunning rendition of Brahms' well-known "Liebeslieder Waltzes". Tickets are $30 for the King Singers, $18 for the Chamber Singers concert, and may be purchased at various Hilton Head and Bluffton outlets including Burke's Pharmacy on Main Street, Paper and Party Plantation in Pineland Station, Pretty Papers in the Village at Wexford, Christie's Hallmark stores at Belfair Towne Village in Bluffton and at the Barnes & Nobles Center in Indigo Run, as well as online at www.hiltonheadchoralsociety.org, by phone with a credit card by calling the Choral Society at 843-341-3818 or at the door if seating is available.
