A Night With Debbi Covington

On September 15th, I received a Facebook message from my friend, Josette Grimsley: "Debbi, my supper club is having a Debbi Covington recipe event this Saturday night. I was wondering if you have a roasted vegetable recipe, either squash or root veggies. If you can direct me to Celebrate Everything! or one of your Lowcountry Weekly articles, I would be so grateful!" Then, I received an email from Becky Baldwin. "Debbi, I understand that Josette has mentioned our Debbi Covington supper club evening. We meet this Saturday and are preparing your recipes. Would love to have you and your husband if you don't have plans."

Of course, I had to work so Vince and I weren't able to attend but I did ask Josette and Becky to please take photos and send them to me. Thus, a new Everyday Gourmet column was born.

Becky sent me the following information about their group: "The Food and Friends Supper

On 10/7/14, I went to the Ritas & The Luckys supper club with a group of friends. We had a great time and enjoyed the food and the company. The food was delicious and the atmosphere was very nice.
