

Lowcountry Chorale Tunes Up for 13th Season

Written by Editor

Tuesday, 02 February 2010 13:06

Singing beautiful music is the bond that brings male and female voices together as they prepare for their annual Spring concert. The Chorale is looking for people who love to sing.

The group is directed by Cliff Kosier who also leads the Harbormasters and Beaufort Belles. He sings with the quartet Eu4ia and is the Pastor of Music at Grace Community Church, Hilton Head. Cliff has been a minister of music for over 20 years with various community choirs and groups throughout the south.

Gloria Bockelman accompanies the chorale on both piano and organ. She has played the piano for over 30 years and has been the piano accompanist with St. John's Lutheran Church since moving to Beaufort in 1990. .

Rehearsals will begin Tuesday, February 16 at St. John's Lutheran Church, 157 Lady's Island Drive. Please arrive at 6:30 pm to pick up your music and sign in. There is a $30.00 fee. Students' fees are waived. An interview will take place with the director after attending two rehearsals. Twelve weeks of rehearsals culminate with the May 15 concert.

Not ready to commit? Undecideds are welcome to come to St. John's Tuesday night at 6:30, February 16, and sit in on a rehearsal.

Lowcountry Chorale Tunes Up for 13th Season

Written by Editor

Tuesday, 02 February 2010 13:06
