The Lowcountry Chorale will perform their fall concert, Music That Soothes the Soul, on Friday, November 15 at 7pm and Saturday, November 16 at 3pm, at St. John's Lutheran Church, 157 Lady's Island Drive, Lady's Island.

Admission is FREE but donations are gratefully accepted!

The Chorale will be presenting familiar favorites that will delight and soothe, including "Bridge Over Troubled Water," "Moon River," and "What a Wonderful World."

Music Director, Jordan Norris Plair, is a well-known local choral director and piano and voice teacher. Along with talented accompanist Gloria Bockelman, Jordan continues to bring great programs to the Chorale, which they always enjoy presenting to the community.

The Lowcountry Chorale is comprised of local area singers who love music and singing. The Chorale is composed of sopranos, altos, tenors and basses, all of whom have varied backgrounds in vocal performance.
